

Medical Device Business Review

- Regulatory
   What is an appropriate regulatory strategy and required steps?
- Intellectual property
  i) Technology & Product Review ii) IP Review (e.g. Does the patent cover the product?
  Does the holder have the freedom to do business with its technology & Products?)
- Clinical impact
  Will the product impact clinical adoption and commercialization, lead to improvements in healthcare, or influence clinical guidelines? If so, how?
- Execution risk
  What are the difficulties and risks of putting the business plans into action?
- Business model viability
   Is the business model realistic?
- Predicate devices
   Are there other devices that can be used as predicates for regulatory or reimbursement purposes?
- Business financial requirements
   What financial support (e.g. amounts, sources, uses, timing) is required for the business?
- Sales and Distribution

  How does the business plan to sell its product?
- Reimbursement
   What are requirements for reimbursement of purchasers of the technology?
- Market need and opportunity
  What is the market opportunity that the product seeks to address? How big is the market? How does the product address the needs of the market for the product?
- Competition
  What other businesses or devices will compete with the business or its device?
- Go To Market Strategy
  What action plan will the business use to reach its unique target market?